

Food Preparation Colour Coded ECO Cutting Boards

Our ECO cutting boards provide durable preparation surface ideal for busy deli and sandwich making area. Critical to your business, they will not harbour bacteria and are 350° heat resistant. Both work surfaces can be used for everyday food preparation, they are dishwasher safe, durable and maintenance free. The boards will not crack or warp and for added safety, the silicon covered feet create a fully non-slip cutting board.

Our ECO cutting boards are NSF and FSC approved, allowing use with confidence.
